Are you well

Everything is good

I haven't had any inconvenience or bad till date but I don't have some books on geography in assamese medium in the library. Try to bring those books. And feel less access to electricity in hot weather and some fans don't have speed. So the problem should be solved.

Sarbodaya College is the only Arts Degree College in Dergaon S. C. Assembly constituency of co-education established in 1985 in the historic Malow Pather, Jorhat, with donations and contributions of benevolent persons and local people of the locality. This college is now affiliated under Dibrugarh University of Assam and imparts education up to major level in sixentrancesubjects and pass course in nine subjects. Sarbodaya college is situated in historic Malow Pather surrounded by Borbheti to the South, Botalikhusha Bill to the East, Bhugdoi river to the North, historic Malow Pather to the West. This institution imparts various NSS camps to the students. Recently the College has introduced N.C.C. education and computer certificate courses. The students of this college performed excellently in different degree examinations including Rank, 1st class distinction. The real strength of Sarbodaya College rests in its highly qualified and devoted teachers and efficient and deligent office staff which make the institution unique.

There is a lack of chairs in our student lounge And our student lounge lacks space to accommodate all the students
